

The concept of a corporation such as Sinclair Broadcasting forcing their stations to air a documentaty that is anti-one of the political candidates is appalling. The fact that the company is known to be a large contributor to one of the candidates makes it even worse. The American public deserves open, honest information about each candidate.

Sinclair and other companies using the public airwaves free of charge, are obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in the public interest to have a smear campaign (against any candidate or any political party).

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to be taken seriously and involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
